In the final installment, the second generation of King men set out to prove themselves once and for all. Coming to grips with the fact that their latest enemy is undefeated just like them, the boys prepare for the worst. For the first time, their enemies have no problem going for the jugular, or in other words, attacking the harmless loved ones of the Kings. Will they come out on top like expected? Or will they become overwhelmed, causing the original King brothers to show up and show out?
