And Then There Was Jesus Pooja Chilukuri

This book is the story of a devout Hindu girl, a deeply committed Christian young adult, a woman who was on her way to atheism and a woman who fell in love with Jesus. All those people are me. This book is my story.” ~ POOJA CHILUKURI

And Then There Was Jesus is a story which demonstrates that religion simply does not work. It fails at the very thing it supposedly aims to do: bring people closer to God. On the contrary, religion successfully drives a wedge between God and man by producing fear and guilt. A religious mindset compels us to lead a performance driven life of stress. Jesus compels us to rest in God's love and His finished work on the cross. Jesus brings the hope that religion cannot give, the hope that you do not have to struggle to be approved by God. He is already deeply in love with you.

If you have never been consumed by the overwhelming love of God, this book is for you.
