The Apostles' Creed: A User's Guide (Exploring Christian Faith) Marshall D. Johnson

Like other titles in the Exploring Christian Faith series, this book invites readers to take a closer look at what is central to Christian faith and doctrine. In an accessible and intriguing way, Johnson provides insight into such topics as how the resurrection of Jesus is the pattern for much of the Christian hope and how this creed originated as an anti-Gnostic document. Useful as a refresher for individuals and groups, it is invaluable for introductory college courses and for those preparing for church membership
