We all have expectations, and without them we would not get very far in life. There is something comforting about routine, rising each morning knowing what to expect during the day, coming home, evening rituals, bedtimes, and beginning all over again the next day. But with any routine, we can get stuck in the expected, so much so that we miss the divine presence, right in the midst of our fragile lives. Here are twelve original non-fiction stories by accomplished writers that explore those surprising encounters within their own lives.
