La tierra de Álvaro Fáñez (Novela histórica) (Spanish Edition) Antonio Pérez Henárez

Siglo XI, frontera del Reino de Castilla, es tiempo de héroes. La mejor novela histórica de una época convulsa que marcaría nuestra historia.

Fan Fáñez, sobrino y protegido de Álvaro Fáñez, protagoniza esta historia ambientada en la España del siglo xi y principios del xii, cuando Rodrigo Díaz de Vivar, el Cid Campeador, lideraba gestas y combates tanto con musulmanes como con cristianos; mientras el rey Alfonso VI, acompañado de sus servidores Pedro Ansúrez y García Ordóñez, movía las piezas de su reino como si fuera un maestro de ajedrez. Pero eran tiempos convulsos, y en el reino de Castilla —convertido en un lugar fronterizo— cada bastión jugaba un papel crucial en la política, el poder y la guerra.

El joven Fan es rescatado a los diecisiete años de un monasterio y formado por su tío Álvaro en el arte de la espada y la guerra. Junto a él cabalgará defendiendo la frontera del Tajo y del Henares, desde Zorita, por Guadalajara, hasta la ciudad de Toledo, frente a los sucesivos intentos de los andalusíes. Luchará junto al de Vivar, forjará su amistad con Álvaro, con el pardo Pedro Gómez y el sarraceno Mufaza, y descubriremos también su pasión por la judía Jezabel.

Antonio Pérez Henares, que cuenta en su exitosa trayectoria con títulos tan aclamados como El último cazador o Nublares, recupera en esta épica narración, magníficamente documentada, la figura de Álvaro Fáñez, al que el Campeador llamaba Minaya, «mi hermano», enterrado por la historiografía y la leyenda en el olvido. Nos revela los verdaderos hechos acaecidos bajo el reinado de Alfonso vi y el posterior de su hija, la reina Urraca, y cómo su fiel vasallo Álvaro se ganó el respeto entre las tropas dedicando su vida a la defensa y consolidación de las posiciones castellanas frente a la amenaza almorávide; haciendo que aquellos extensos territorios, antiguamente dominados por los beréberes Il Nun, fueran conocidos como la Tierra de Álvaro Fáñez.
