Ser barroco (RAZÓN Y SOCIEDAD) (Spanish Edition) Carlos Soldevilla Perez

En sintonía con las nuevas corrientes de pensamiento, esta obra presenta una sociología de la cultura que recupera la relevancia de la aportación del pensamiento español a la memoria histórica de la filosofía y las ciencias sociales contemporáneas. El barroco, más allá de su interés como estilo artístico, es la cultura de mayor calado e irradiación que ha dado España y se inscribe en la tradición española e iberoamericana de pensamiento filosófico y científico social. Carlos Soldevilla nos proporciona aquí una hermenéutica sustantiva para la comprensión e interpretación de la sociedad actual, abordando una serie de estudios sobre los lazos entre la cultura barroca y nuestra actual fenomenología sociocultural más o menos neobarroca. Consumo, psicoanálisis, arte, cuerpo, arquitectura, giro visual, nuevas identidades y estilos de vida son algunos de los fenómenos que se investigan en este libro.
