What is the one great negative thought, negative person, or negative circumstance defying your best efforts? Is it possible to turn the negative thought to positive action, resolution, and solution? Elijah lived during the time of negative forces between Baal and Jehovah, Ahab and Jezebel, rain and no rain. Elijah won because he turned the negative situation to a positive solution. When there are two opposing forces, the one with the most urgency usually wins. Which force is winning in your life?
