When Strong Men Wept Dr. Michael B. Knight

Its about longing to change Christianity by changing the people who lead it, from the inside out. It is for those who seek a deeper touch of God upon their lives, ministries, or organizations. Whether you are a leader or follower, a new believer or seasoned executive, this book will re-establish the primary foundation of faith and leadership in the Charismatic/Pentecostal movement. It is a sincere call for spiritual reform. It will lead you into discovering the kenotic life as it observes the ancient study of humility, brokenness, and the way Jesus Christ actually lived His life as a leader.
