Love in a foreign land. A decaying hacienda full of secrets. And a woman searching for the story of her life.

A funeral and some family business--that's what Julia Bentley expects when she travels to the Philippines to bury her grandfather. She hopes for a brief adventure, a distraction from her most recent failed relationship and her loose-ends California life. Maybe even a chance to meet some distant relatives she's never known.

Instead, she discovers a place where past and present, Spanish and Asian, primitive and civilized mingle in a melange as spicy and colorful as the paella her relatives dish up for special occasions. A place where some children hitch rides on cattle and others wield loaded guns. Where guerillas lurk in the jungle, and volcanoes and governments are threatened to blow. Where stories haunt her ancestral home--the grand but decaying Hacienda Esperanza, Plantation of Hope--and danger lurks behind every tree. Love and orchids bloom in places she never thought to look.

How can a land so foreign, and so troubled, fill her with a strange peace? And would staying mean risking her life . . . or finding it at last?

Maria Holder:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Orchid House can make you really feel more interested to read.
