Propaganda and Information in Eastern India 1939-45: A Necessary Weapon of War (Centre of South Asian Studies, School of Oriental and Africa) Sanjoy Bhattacharya

This is a study of the social, political, economic and public health aspects of the Second World War in South Asia, with particular attention being accorded to colonial Eastern India, which was treated as a single administrative unit during the course of the conflict for strategic purposes. The conclusion deals with the long term effects of the war: its effects on political formations, bureaucratic re-negotiation and the de-colonisation of the British Indian empire.
