Justicia y medios: La revolución comunicacional de la Corte Suprema Argentina (Spanish Edition)

María Bourdin

Como dice Ricardo Lorenzetti en el prólogo de este libro, es innegable el crecimiento de la judicialización de los conflictos. Todos los grandes temas de la sociedad van al Poder Judicial y es de suma importancia que los ciudadanos tengan acceso directo a esa información, cuidando la calidad del mensaje que se brinda.

Con casos emblemáticos como el de la contaminación del Riachuelo, el asesinato de Mariano Ferreyra, la megacausa ESMA, la tragedia de Once y de Cromañón, Justicia y Medios demuestra la necesidad de transmitir las decisiones de la Justicia argentina.

La información es poder. Por eso María Bourdin, que lideró la creación del Centro de Información Judicial con el objetivo de comunicar para educar, explica la importancia del ingreso de las cámaras al Palacio de Tribunales que también es, después de todo, el ingreso de la sociedad argentina a la Justicia.
