But God Remembered: Stories of Women from Creation to the Promised Land (What You Will See Inside) Sandy Eisenberg Sasso

This lively collection is a celebration of courageous and wise women from ancient tradition whom we seldom remember. With vivid prose and lush, full-color illustrations, this storybook introduces Lillith, the first woman in the Garden of Eden according to an ancient legend, who shows her determination to have men and women treat each other as equals; Serach the musician, whose courage to speak out through song heals the wrongs of another generation; Bityah, who draws the baby Moses from the Nile and with a mother's bravery encourages him to become who he will be, proving that taking a risk to do what's right can change the world; and the daughters of Z, who struggle against discrimination with great daring—and extraordinary results.
