Alanna and Reece met through the Wives Wanted matchmaking service, and agreed to a marriage...with love kept firmly out of the picture. At first, the only place they truly come together is in bed. But one day, while dancing with a friend of her husband, Alanna notices something surprising in Reece's gaze: jealousy! But why would he be jealous? The love they make later that night is different, more passionate than ever before. Is their relationship starting to grow into something new? Before she can piece together what's going on, Alanna loses her memory in a terrible accident!
