Mastering these skills spells the difference between "A.B.D." and "Ph.D."

- refuting the magnum opus myth
- coping with the dissertation as obsession (magnificent or otherwise)
- the fine art of selecting a topic
- writing the dissertation with publication in mind
- when to stand your ground and when to prudently retreat if the committee's conception of your thesis differs substantially from your own
- dealing with obstructive committee members, and keeping the fences mended
- how to reconsider "negative" findings as useful data
- reviewing your progress, and getting out of the "dissertation dumps"
- defending your paper successfully--distinguishing between mere formalities and a serious substantive challenge
- exploiting the career potential of your dissertation
- and much, much more
