The Dragon, Image, And Demon Or, The Three Religions Of China, Confucianism, Buddhism, And Taoism Giving An Account Of The Mythology, Idolatry, And Demonolatry Of The Chinese Hampden C. DuBose

Originally published in 1887, this early work by American missionary Hampden Coit DuBose is both expensive and hard to find in its first edition. It contains a wealth of information on the religions of China. This fascinating work is thoroughly recommended for those interested in Confucianism, Buddhism, Taoism and eastern mythology. Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce. We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high quality, modern editions, using the original text and artwork.
