The Inheritance V.F. Graham

A young Australian man learns he is the sole heir to a wealthy estate, and travels to Germany at the request of his only remaining family to claim his inheritance. As he slowly learns to embrace his new found family and responsibilities, he also learns the true nature of his family's legacy. Johnny's family harbours a horrifying curse, which has been kept secret for generations. Over 20 years, Johnny struggles to find a remedy and release his family from their fearful burden. When the answer appears to be within reach, Johnny finds himself faced with a terrible choice, one which will ultimately change his family forever.
